

THE KINGSWAY STORY

Kingsway Prison and Family Outreach was founded over 40 years ago in Harrisonburg, Virginia, by Shel and Louise Jennings. “The People That Love” Center worked with the homeless and anyone needing help.

In 1989, Kingsway began focusing on prisoners and citizens returning from incarceration. The organization was renamed Kingsway Prison and Family Outreach in 1996, and has grown exponentially ever since.

After Shel Jennings passed away in 2012, Louise continued the ministry with the help of dedicated volunteers. Louise officially retired as Executive Director in December 2023. She continues to work behind the scenes as Executive Director Emerita, mentoring our new Executive Director, Paula Ford, and writing a book about her experiences.

Paula Ford, the new Executive Director, is prayerfully leading Kingsway Prison and Family Outreach into the next 40 years.
